Bartlett Holds Slim Lead In Touch Football Scoring

Chris Bartlett's 32 points in three games for the Three Mile Tavern puts him on top of the scoring in the Ten Penny Touch Football League.

The spread, however, is far from safe with Paul Stackhouse of Broco's Broncos checking in at second spot with 30 after pushing 12 points across the line in Broco's 42-21 win over Irving Blues.

The Three Milers and Aquarius Trojans are the only undefeated teams in the loop and they face each other tonight in a 7:30 p.m. start. Other games tonight have the Blues against Shoppers Drug Mart and the Rockets battling Walking Wounded.
